

DIVORCE WORKSHOP

Sponsored by the Office of the Family Law Facilitator
A Free Public service of Glenn County Superior Court

WHEN: Divorce workshops are held the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. Workshops start at 5:00 p.m. and are limited to the first ten participants on a first come, first serve basis. To attend this workshop, please call 934-6105 to make an appointment.

WHERE: Workshops are conducted in the lobby of the Human Resource Agency building located at 604 East Walker Street in Orland, California.

HOW: The workshops are conducted in a group setting by the Family Law Facilitator, a licensed attorney. The workshops are designed to help the participant complete all the necessary court forms to start or respond to a divorce, paternity, child custody or child support case.

WHO: The workshops are free, and are open to anyone wishing to represent themselves.

WHAT: You will need to bring the following items to the workshop.

1. All paperwork pertaining to your case.
2. Verification of income. Bring copies of your most recent W-2 and Income Tax return forms, your three most recent paycheck stubs, verification of TANF and /or Cal WORKS benefits, disability benefits, and/or SSI/SSDI benefits.

---

NOTE: PLEASE, DO NOT BRING CHILDREN TO WORKSHOPS.

---

For further information about workshops offered by the Family Law Facilitator's Office, please call (530) 934-6105.